

Spiritual Grandparenting Workshop

Ideas and Inspiration for Passing Your Spiritual Legacy on to Your Grandchildren

Maybe your adult children no longer practice your faith and you're wondering how to share your beliefs, values and worldview with your grandchildren in a way that does not make waves with their parents.

Or maybe you do all share one tradition and you want to make the most of your role as the spiritual matriarch or patriarch of the family.

Spiritual Grandparenting Workshops are a fun mix of storytelling, individual reflections & group discussions. Join us and you will gain:

- A clearer picture of wisdom received from your own spiritual journey
- Age-appropriate ideas and storytelling seeds for passing this wisdom on to next generations
- An understanding of the psychological importance for young people to have a spiritual faith

Facilitator

Carolyn Kolovitz is a spiritual director at Loyola Spirituality Center.

For 15 years, she facilitated groups with children & teens in schools & other settings on topics such as relationships, values, & future goals.

Carolyn has trained professionals on youth facing tough issues.

She is the parent of an adult daughter who she adopted at age eight.

Carolyn has a BS degree in Psychology, an MS degree in Women's Studies and will be completing her MA in Theology in 2019.

Date: Monday, December 3, 2018

Time: 6:30pm – 8:30pm

Location: St Thomas Becket Room 205